Dear Howie,

Hello everyone! We wanted to blast out a reminder to you all that our Spring Red Rock trip is coming up very soon. Don't miss your chance to spend some time in the amazing Red Rock Canyon. This is multi-pitch sandstone climbing at it's best: steep, featured, and colorful rock, all in striking distance from the Vegas strip. Easy to moderate approaches bring you to incredibly featured sandstone which has been eroding for thousands of years to make for amazing climbing just for you. In the background you will hear the burros yelling, see birds of prey circling the sky and on the approach you will want to stop to check out the incredible diversity of spiky plants. With moderate classics throughout the park you can spend years ticking them off, but in five days you can get an amazing amount done. We are very excited to visit Red Rocks twice in 2011! We have one trip scheduled in the spring and one in the fall, when the weather is perfect (we're talkin' shorts and suntans- woohoo!). Spend the evenings either in a nearby hotel where you can gamble and take advantage of the Spa. Or join us at the Bonnie Springs Resort where you can sit back and watch the sun set with a cold beverage in your hand, go to the petting zoo, or karaoke the night away. Join us for a memorable trip full of fun climbing, friends and maybe a little nightlife; the more the merrier! Sign up today for one day or all five. Remember, unlike Vegas proper, what happens in Red Rock, you get to tell all your friends about! Nothing could be easier or more fun!
